

The sole focus of the Mother/Daughter Artist Guild is to encourage, uplift and celebrate the maternal connection between mothers and daughters and how they share their bonds through their art.

For membership in this Guild, the only requirements are:

- 1) that there is a maternal connection between the duo, trio, etc., such as mother and daughter, grandmother and granddaughter, etc.
- 2) that each is an "artist" in some form of art, whether it is fine art, graphic art, performing art, fiber art, pottery, filmmaking, crafting, designing, styling, etc.

Benefits of Membership include:

- * Web page (of duo, trio) on the Guild website to include: bios, photo of duo, trio, etc., one image of each artist's work, contact info, and a link to artists' existing website(s). (A web gallery on the Guild site will be available for an additional fee -- please ask.)
- * Participation in group exhibits.*
- * Participation in group events and/or field trips.*
- * Exposure in publications through Mother/Daughter Artist Guild PR.

*additional fees may be required.

2011 Season Events... Our first season has been busy!

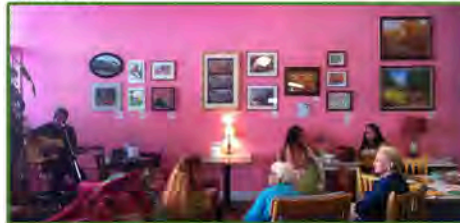

Yupo Workshop by Judith Meyer:

On Oct. 15 Judith Meyer gave a workshop on this unique painting style, and follow-up class will be scheduled soon. Visit our website for more information.

Mother/Daughter Guild Art Exhibit:

Several of our members exhibited their art at Javalina Coffee House on Bullard St. in downtown Silver City in August. We thank everyone who came out and celebrated our first Guild exhibit!

August Field Trip to Las Cruces Museum of Art & Branigan Cultural Center

Members viewed a beautiful exhibit at the LCMA and were very inspired by a 9/11 tribute at the Brannigan Center, a collaboration that gave us some big ideas!

Check our website for more info as plans develop...
